

Donate Blood in Loving Memory of Ethan Song

On January 31, 2018, my son Ethan got his braces off in the morning. He was so happy and wanted to go out to breakfast to celebrate. Over breakfast, Ethan shared with me his hopes and dreams: he wanted to go to Rice University, join the Army, marry, and have seven children! We returned home, and Ethan walked to his best friend's house. An hour later, I saw two police officers walking across my front lawn, and my heart sank. My son was killed with an unsecured gun that was left along with ammunition in a shoebox. My son, Ethan had just turned 15 years old on January 19.

This year, on January 31, Mike, Emily, Evan, and I want Ethan's death to give life. Therefore, the Ethan Miller Song Foundation will be hosting its first annual memorial blood drive. We hope you can join us; your donation just may save a life.
